1. SIGN PLAN. Provide a detailed sign plan for all signage proposed to be used at the site for review. All licensees must display at the stand location a 32 square foot banner which recites the identity of the licensee. This banner must be attached between two poles securely placed in the ground. All licensees must also display near the cash register (or other place of checkout) a signs of at least 12" x 12" which recites the identity of the licensee. As a condition of approval of the license application, all licensees must immediately remove any sign after being informed by City staff that the sign violates the licensee's approved sign plan.
