Crank Out Hunger is a bicycle ride that was started seven years ago to benefit Coldwater, a passion-driven non-profit organization centered in Lee's Summit, Missouri. Coldwater feeds an average of 350 people a month in Lee's Summit through programs such as Coldwater's Food Pantry, Friends Day Lunch Program, Summer Lunch Programs, Summer Neighborhood BBQs, and No Hungry Kids Backpack Program. The funds raised on our ride go directly helping fund these Coldwater programs to help feed those in need.

The Ride: August 15, 2015

The Bike ride consists of 3 mileage options that range from 28, 58, to 87 miles. All routes will leave from Lee's Summit Subaru. Each loop starts and ends from the parking lot. There will be support available on each of the loops as well as one rest stop or two in the middle of each loop. The Subaru parking lot and rest stops will have snacks and water available for the riders. The Subaru lot will also have bicycle support sponsored by Bike Stop.

After the bike ride there will be a family picnic. All the registered riders will eat a free BBQ lunch and can bring family and friends for a small donation.
