TO: Lee's Summit City Hall
FROM: Deana Haines, Owner Haines Music
DATE: Tuesday, February 21, 2017
TOPIC: Written Approval from Property Owner

I would like to submit my approval to have the Restoration House of Greater Kansas City hold its CEO Tricycle Race in front of the Lee's Summit City Hall located on 220 SE Green Street, Lee's Summit, Missouri 64064.

As a participant in the event as a judge, this event will raise fund to assist Restoration House of Greater Kansas City in its fundraising efforts. Other participants in the event include local business clientele as judges, day of event volunteers and participants.

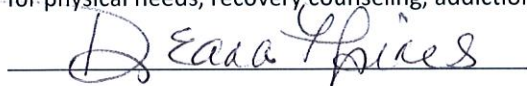

It is estimated that each year 1,650 kids in the Greater Kansas City Metro Area, including Lee's Summit, are victims of sexual exploitation. This staggering reality comes from The Renewal Forum, a non-profit agency which participates in policy, research, and advocacy to promote respect for human dignity on the issues of commercial sexual exploitation.

The Department of Justice commissioned a study to determine the risk of Domestic Minor Sex trafficking (DMST). The findings indicated that of ten key cities studied in the US, the Kansas City Metro area was number two in terms of risk for DMST. Sadly, most of these children are never properly identified or helped and they enter adult life as victims of sex trafficking, having suffered unimaginable violence and trauma.

The mission of Restoration House of Greater Kansas City is to help minors and adult victims recover and live fully restored lives through its holistic healing programs. Since opening our doors in June of 2015, fifteen girls and women have received services. Additionally, so far this year, 203 youth that were being groomed by sexual predators online have been identified and connected with appropriate law enforcement and/or counseling resources through the prevention programs of AwareKC, one of our partners in fighting DMST.

There is no doubt that sex trafficking and the sexual exploitation of our most vulnerable is happening in the Greater Kansas City area! This is not what we want Kansas City to be known for! We believe that the only viable and sustainable solution to this huge injustice, is our community working together in partnership with Restoration House to say "Not In Our City!"

At Restoration House of Greater Kansas City, we believe in empowering victims of sex trafficking through the healing and recovery process. We seek to provide restoration for survivors as they heal, and provide the resources they need to recover and live fulfilling lives without the pain and fear they have experienced for so long. Our holistic long-term programs focus on assisting survivors heal from the indignities they have suffered by providing for physical needs, recovery counseling, addiction therapy, as well as education and job skill training.
