We can send the letter of notification but cannot do so until we receive a New Install Notice. This can be submitted by Casey's, but typically is submitted by the installer. Some outside entities use this as an "approval" but technically that is not what it is.

To help owners and operators of petroleum underground storage tank (UST) systems gain a better understanding of the UST regulations, the department is offering to make in-person compliance assistance visits. Department representatives are available to meet with staff at the facility and do some or all of the following: explain regulatory requirements and provide updates, discuss walk-through inspections, and review UST record requirements and operator training. Finally, department staff can discuss what to expect during future compliance inspections and answer any remaining questions. Regulated entities may request compliance assistance visits by contacting the department's UST Compliance and Technology Unit at 573-522-5665 or at tanks-compliance@dnr.mo.gov.

Greetings,

I do not believe the City has assigned an address at this time; however, the proposed store is to be located at the Northwest corner of Arboridge Drive & MO Highway 150, see attached site plan.

Good Morning!

For a short answer, we do not issue any approval letters but we do mail a letter of notification when we receive the New Install Notice form. What is the address for this location?

Greetings, we are working on a project in Lee's Summit and the city plan reviewer for the fire department has asked for an approval letter from your office regarding the Underground Storage Tanks associated with the project. Please advise what will be required to obtain such approval.

Thank you,
