Good Morning Mike,
All is good, staying busy for sure!
This project is dead I think it is fine for the approval to expire.

Thanks for checking in!

Jason,

Good afternoon. Hope everything is going well. I wanted to contact you regarding the status of this project. The most recent activity on the project was April 14, 2017 and was a staff letter indicating that the final development plan was approved. Per the Unified Development Ordinance an application is valid an application is active for a period of one year from the approval date. At the time the application will expire unless the City receives a written request for the extension of the application. The request would need to include the reason for the request. An extension of one year can be granted.

Please let me know the status of the project and if the applicant/owner wishes for the application to be extended.

Thank you and have a great evening.

Yours Truly,
