

MINOR PLAT PROCESS

Purpose of Minor Plats

The City of Lee's Summit requires that all property be platted before a building permit is issued. Platting involves the subdivision of land into lots or tracts. A plat is recorded as a permanent legal document that includes both an accurate legal description, as well as a graphical depiction of any real property that is to be divided. The intent of platting is to provide a readily accessible and easily understandable public record of property. Units of property that have been created by platting can be easily transferred between interested parties.

Subdivision plats dictate:

- sizes and shapes of lots
- relationship between existing and future streets
- Location of proposed public improvements
- location of lands dedicated for public purposes

Minor plats may include:

- A division of land into no more than three (3) lots.
- An adjustment in boundaries between the owners of adjoining platted lots.
- An adjustment of building lines.
- A resurvey to combine two (2) or more lots or tracts into no more than three new lots.
- A resurvey of up to three (3) lots containing two-, three- or four-family residential structures, for the purpose of subdividing the dwelling units for individual ownership of each unit. Common area(s) previously created on a final plat may be re-subdivided on such a minor resurvey, but no common area shall be created on a minor plat.

MINOR PLAT PROCESS

Step 1 – Filing the Application

An application for minor plat must be completed and submitted to the Development Services Department, with the proper filing fee, payable to the City of Lee's Summit. See the Schedule of Fees and Charges for the applicable application fee.

An application may be withdrawn at any time upon written request; however, no refund will be made after the application has been processed.

Step 2 – Development Review Committee (DRC)

Every application goes through a detailed staff review. A Project Manager is assigned to coordinate the review of each application. After the application is submitted, plans are routed to several departments for review and then discussed by the Development Review Committee. This is a staff-only committee consisting of 10 to 15 representatives of various city departments and divisions that reviews each item on the agenda and identifies relevant issues. Out of this meeting, the development departments will prepare written comments on the proposed application.

Step 3 – Comments Sent

The Project Manager will coordinate the written comments from the various development departments. Once finalized, written comments will be sent (via fax or email) to the individuals listed on the application including surveyor/engineer, owner and developer. The written comments will state whether a revision is necessary or a final version of the plat can be submitted for signatures. This step can be repeated several times depending on whether all corrections/revisions have been completed satisfactorily.

Step 4 – Getting a Plat Recorded

The final version of the plat submitted for signatures must be free from errors and include any revisions required as a part of the approval. Often, revisions/corrections must be completed before the final version of the plat is submitted. A minimum of 3 mylars and 6 paper copies shall be submitted for City signatures.

A minor plat does not become a legal document until it is recorded by the Jackson or Cass County Recorder of Deeds. The city will not allow a building permit to be issued until after the plat has been recorded and the necessary copies (1 mylar and 2 paper copies) returned to the Development Services Department.

Table 3. Minor Plat – General Requirements
Article 7, Sec. 7.230	Ordinance Requirement	Met	Not Met	N/A
A.	All lots platted or any remaining platted or unplatted land shall meet all zoning requirements for lot sizes. All RLL, R-1, RP-1 and RP-2 zoned lots proposed to be platted through the minor plat process or any remaining platted or unplatted land resulting therefrom shall meet the following requirements:
A.1. Lot Size	Lots created or resulting from a minor plat shall meet or exceed the minimum lot size requirements of the individual zoning district in which located;	X
A.2. New lot shall be 80% of average lot size	Lots created or resulting from a minor plat shall be not less than 80% of the average size of the existing lots within the neighborhood or subdivision in which located, as determined by the Director. Once the initial average lot size has been determined, it shall become and remain the standard by which all other such lots resulting from minor plats within the same neighborhood shall be compared i.e., new lots shall not be used to recalculate an average lot size each time a minor plat is requested;	X
A.3. Calculating average lot size	For purposes of calculating the area of existing lots, all lots within the same subdivision shall be used to determine the average lot size. If no such subdivision exists then all existing lots within a 500 foot radius or other such measurement, as determined by the Director, shall be used for the average lot size determination. If the applicant for the minor plat disagrees with the Director's determination he/she may file a written appeal with the City Clerk to place such appeal before the Governing Body within 10 calendar days of the Director's determination.	X
A.4. Appeal process	Lots created or resulting from a minor plat not meeting the 80% area requirement in (2) above may only be approved through the final plat process requiring both Commission and Governing Body review.	X
B. Public Improvements	Public Improvements. No building permit shall be issued for a lot or tract resulting from a minor plat unless all required public improvements for the minor plat have been substantially completed, as provided in this Article.	X
C. Dedication of easements and additional ROW	Dedication Requirements. A minor plat may not include a new street to be dedicated to the city. A minor plat may include the dedication of additional right-of-way on an existing dedicated street, subject to the approval of the City Engineer. A minor plat may include the dedication of utility easements.			X
